Miscellaneous.

The Russian language will shortly be made compulsory in ladies' schools in the Baltic provinces.

The greatest deposit of manganese ever found in the United States has been opened up at Tredegar, Calhoun county, S. C.

While skylarking in a blacksmith shop in Philadelphia on Saturday one workman threw a file playfully at another, the instrument penetrating the back of the second man, causing probably fatel injuries.

Mr. Henry H. Howorth, conservative member, stated in the British House of Commons recently, that there was a famine in the Soudan so appalling that the people were eating dogs, cats, rats and snakes for food.

It is stated that an invention has been perfected in the glass industry which will accomplish a complete revolution in that branch of manufacture. Until the present it has only been possible to obtain shee: glass by blowing a hollow cylinder, which was then cut, separated and polished. An American glass manufacturer is said to have succeeded in producing glass plates of great breadth and of any length desired by means

A strange discovery has been made by a surveying party of the Kansas City, El Paro and Mexican Ratiroad at a point in Souttern Mexico, not very far from Les Cruces. Here, amid a tremendous lava flow, a veritable sea of obsidian or black glass, a bidden city has been discovered. It is probably of Toltee origin, a race of people who lived and died before the new world was thought The surrounding country is the most desolate and God-forsaken region one can imagine. There is no soil about it.
